

Eugene Voroniuk

Product Designer

14+ years · Growth, monetization & complex SaaS

Experience

Senior Product Designer

Miro | 2021 → Present | Amsterdam

Led product design across acquisition, activation, B2B enterprise growth, and monetization on a platform with 80M+ users. Led the in-product signup redesign and built usage limits for non-registered users. Led the Checkout redesign for Miro's expanding add-on model, designed contextual free-to-paid triggers, and built time-limited trials with admin-facing seat expansion. Redesigned Custom Templates and Shareable Presentations to extend collaboration beyond existing users.

Senior Product Designer

Wix.com | 2019 → 2021 | Kyiv

Owned Wix Groups from launch through iteration as the sole designer, with partial product ownership. Shipped across Web, iOS, and Android on a platform serving 200M+ users in 190 countries. Defined the end-to-end experience, designed distribution and virality mechanics for group discovery and member growth, and contributed to the shared product design system.

Senior UX Designer

Star \(ex-Cogniance\) | 2015 → 2019 | Kyiv

Delivered product design across 10+ client engagements for Fortune 500 companies in IoT, Telematics, HealthTech, Wearables, GovTech, and AdTech. Led discovery workshops and defined product structure, information architecture, and interaction models end to end, including greenfield work in technically constrained environments. Briefly led and mentored a team of four designers in the Wroclaw office.

Earlier experience

Graphic and Web Designer, Ciklum | 2013 → 2015. Data visualization, infographics, and web design for a consulting team.

Web Designer, Vortex InterCom | 2011 → 2013. UX and visual design of websites; asset delivery to development teams.

Selected work

Simple Screen Recorder, 2026 — independently designed, built, and launched as a Chrome extension.

Try Wren, 2026 — designed and shipped an ADHD-friendly expense-tracking PWA.

Startup Advisor, 2018 → Present — product design and strategy for startups and SMBs.
